It's not often that you come across a city like Vancouver, one that so effortlessly combines the excitement of a modern city with true access to the great outdoors. This really is a "city of nature": look in one direction to see glass skyscrapers, sidewalk cafes and art galleries, then turn around and take in a view of temperate rainforest and majestic mountains. Vancouver offers a fresh perspective on what it means to visit a city: lose yourself on a hike among ancient trees without leaving the downtown peninsula, have lunch at a busy waterfront market, spend the afternoon on a mountain wildlife-watching tour, then come back down again to dine and dance the night away in one of the city's hip neighbourhoods. A visit to Vancouver offers a refreshing change to the usual city vacation.

VANCOUVER SPECIALIST PROGRAM

Ask your travel agent if they are a certified Vancouver Specialist. Vancouver Specialist agents have enhanced knowledge of the city and access to exclusive special value added offers. Watch for these special offers highlighted throughout this brochure!
